

Tomah Man Hurt In Crash

Monday, 26 December 2011 10:00

An early morning accident in Monroe County left a Tomah man hurt early Saturday morning. It happened in the Town of Clifton where 21 year old William Georgeson was not able to tell officers when or where the accident happened. Deputies were able to put things together and searched an area just east of Clifton for the accident scene.

At 7:15 am the vehicle was located on Cty Hwy A just west of Justice Rd. Georgeson had gone off the road into a corn field on the north side of Cty hwy A at Krypton Rd. He then drove through the field and crossed over Justice Rd and continued west until he hit a tree just off of Cty Hwy A.

Georgeson was treated for minor injuries. The crash remains under investigation by the Monroe County Sheriff's Department.
