

The democratic party of La Crosse county brought in Tammy Baldwin last night....she's the only democrat running to replace Senator Herb Kohl. And tonight, the only democratic candidate for Governor, Senator Tim Cullen, will make a stop in La Crosse. All leading up to a big recall charge this weekend, says new party chair, Vicki Burke.

Burke, who takes the top spot in the party this week, says the party will gather across the street from the republican headquarters opening on Saturday then will make one final push in gathering signatures in the recall attempt of Governor Scott Walker.
