

United Way Director Resigns

Monday, 15 March 2010 16:45

It's ten and done for Rose Mary. Great Rivers United Way executive director Rose Mary Boesen's resigning her job. Boesen's been the director of the local United Way chapter for ten years and has been with the organization for twenty years. United Way board chair Brad Sturm expects the search for a new director will take up to six months.