

No Leads In Winona Arsons

Friday, 13 January 2012 12:00

The tips have come in, but still no leads towards a rash of arsons in Winona. Police there are still asking for the public's help in solving three suspected arson fires that occurred in the same general location within six weeks back in November and December.

A number of tips have come in but still no suspects have been caught.

A public meeting will be held next Wednesday in which representatives of the police and fire departments will share what they do have on the fires. It's being organized by a Neighborhood Watch Group. The meeting will be at 6:00 p.m. at the the Winona Vet's Center and the public is invited.
