

Billings Not Impressed By Speech

Thursday, 26 January 2012 09:30

It was a first for State Representative, Jill Billings, last night...her first state of the state address. Impressed? Nope.

Billings also said Governor Walker spoke a lot about education but his education reform agenda does not address the real problems our school districts are facing. She says it's about choices.