

Governor Scott Walker gave his state of the state address last night....and he fought through some tough voices in the balcony.

This went on periodically throughout the 45 minute speech and each one was escorted out by capitol police. Senator Jennifer Shilling says, besides the Governor's speech, the outbursts were something else she did not agree with.

Shilling says she was upset that for the second year in a row, the Governor failed to recognize the $59 billion agriculture industry and the needs of rural communities.
