

The democratic reaction to Governor Walkers state of the state address last night is that when he talked jobs.....his speech was all full of holes and mistruths and the state is in worse shape then before he signed the budget. La Crosse County GOP Chair, Bill Feehan, also chimed in.

Feehan says he thinks it shows that the democrats have nothing positive to say and in the end....this is all really about collective bargaining.