

If you haven't yet heard UWL graduate Reed Grimm on American Idol, you're missing a show

Grimm's brought plenty of new eyes to the show, especially among his former instructors at UWL

Karyn Quinn's a senior Lecturer in the music department. She's also from Grimm's hometown and recruited him to come to UWL, where he was a featured talent for various groups at the school. Grimm also performed locally in the groups Three Beers til Dubuque and Shoeless Revolution.
