

A local effort to help troubled veterans could be expanding. State Senator Jennifer Shilling and State Representatives Steve Doyle and Jill Billings want to expand the La Crosse County Veterans Court to include surrounding counties. And the bipartisan interest is growing.

The court takes veterans who have had run ins with the law and puts them in a program that can handle specific veterans needs.