

PRESIDENT OBAMA IS EXPECTED TO SIGN A HEALTH CARE REFORM BILL TUESDAY...SOMETHING THAT MANY AMERICANS HOPED WOULD NOT HAPPEN.

CONGRESSMAN RON KIND OF LA CROSSE SAYS HE DECIDED OVER THE WEEKEND TO SUPPORT THE BILL. KIND BELIEVES ELECTION-YEAR POLITICS WAS A BIG MOTIVATION FOR MANY OPPONENTS OF THE PLAN.

BUT AFTER THE HEALTH CARE DEBATE, KIND THINKS THERE ARE IMPORTANT ISSUES THE REST OF THIS SESSION THAT THE TWO PARTIES CAN WORK ON TOGETHER...INCLUDING RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF FOREIGN OIL.
