

Cone Zones Coming To Onalaska

Wednesday, 14 March 2012 10:35

It may be a bit early for summer construction cone zones, but the City of Onalaska is about to unleash them for a long overdue project. The Highway 35 road construction project.

The city's, Deena Murphy, says construction equipment will start coming in from the contractor on March 19th. The project should go until October.