

By this time next week, we could know for sure when a recall election against Governor Scott Walker will be scheduled.

And in the next week or two, more challengers to Walker could join the race...including his 2010 opponent, Tom Barrett. However, time to enter the race is growing short...and Alma Senator Kathleen Vinehout says the Democratic primary might be just between her and Kathleen Falk. Vinehout met with supporters at a downtown La Crosse restaurant last night. She told them that outside spending in the recall election is likely to be heavy.
