

Bill Feehan handed over the reins of the La Crosse County GOP to Vice Chairman Julian Bradley at the party's Lincoln Day Dinner Friday night. Feehan had previously announced his plans to step down as chairman to focus on his run for the 32nd state Senate district. Bradley was a candidate for the 95th Assembly district in 2010 and has served as vice chair since February 2011. Feehan handed over the chairmanship at the finale of the party's annual Lincoln Day Dinner. This was the largest attendance of a Lincoln Day Dinner in the party's history and the first time a sitting governor has spoken at the event since then governor Thompson spoke in La Crosse in 1995.

