

Tomah Shooting Still Being Investigated

Monday, 02 April 2012 22:45

Police in Tomah are looking for two suspects linked to a shooting that occurred two weeks ago. Beyond that....not much else is being released by police. Chief Wes Revels.

21 year old Holden Mayberry suffered a single gunshot wound to the torso after he was walking along a walking trail in Tomah. Mayberry told police two men confronted him on the trail and then shot him. No detailed description of the suspects has been given.
