

Neighborhood Walkthroughs Meant to Stimulate Discussion

Thursday, 05 April 2012 08:20

Often the best way to get a handle on a problem is to get a first-hand look at it. That's partly what's behind neighborhood walkthroughs scheduled to begin this month in La Crosse. The city's Neighborhood Revitalization Commission will do two-hour tours of five distinct neighborhoods

City council member Sara Sullivan heads the commission. The neighborhood walk throughs begin on the 16th of this month in the Washburn neighborhood.
