Two well-known classic rock bands will headline the 5th annual Freedom Fest in La Crosse to benefit veterans. Freedom Fest will be held Saturday, June 16th, at the UW-La Crosse Veterans Memorial Field Sports Complex and will feature performances by 451st Army Band out of Fort McCoy, Remainders, Foreigner and the Steve Miller Band. Tickets go on sale today and LHI's Caitlin Lyga says you better snap them up while you can.

Freedom Fest will also include a motorcycle ride through the Coulee Region and ceremonies to honor veterans. Over five years, Freedom Fest has raised more than $295 thousand for veterans' causes, and $60 thousand in scholarships for veterans to attend universities in the UW System.
