

Local ratepayers are being asked to call on Governor Walker today to stop the CapX2020 and the Badger Coulee Power lines from happening. Irv Balto with the Citizens Energy Task Force describes what will be seen outside the Stoney Creek Inn this afternoon.

The group will be there from 3:30 to 7 pm, while the American Transmission Company holds an open house about the proposed high voltage power line.