

Crash Near Holmen Kills Two Young Men

Thursday, 26 April 2012 11:58

We're learning more about the rollover crash that killed two young men near Holmen...

Sheriff's officers heard about the accident at around 6 o'clock this morning, but it may have happened during the night. The passenger was thrown from the car, while the driver was pinned inside. Both men were 21, and sources indicate they were recent graduates of Holmen High School. The car went off County Highway X-X and rolled into a field.
