

The Third Congressional District Committee will hold a Convention Saturday, May 19th to elect delegates from the Third District to attend the Democratic National Convention in Charlotte, North Carolina. We asked La Crosse County Democratic party chair, Vicki Burke, why this is important.

Conventions are being held statewide in each district and La Crosse can have seventeen more delegates and 44 alternates.