

La Crosse Woman Named To Statewide Criminal Justice Coordinating Panel

Thursday, 10 May 2012 11:04

Patti Jo Severson of La Crosse has another position to add to her resume. She currently serves as a nutrition and health educator at Gunderson Lutheran Medical Center and serves as Co Chair of the Mental Health Coalition of the Greater La Crosse Area. She now also sits on a Governor's Criminal Justice statewide panel.

Severson will join police chief's and judges also on the panel...to improve the criminal justice system policy...and the Council will meet at least four times per year and report to the Governor and other relevant state agencies annually on its progress.
