

Let the responses roll in. Survey's sent out by the La Crosse School District are slowly but surely coming in.

Superintendent, Randy Nelson, says 27 thousand letters went out a week ago. That survey asks whether the District should update both North side elementary schools or just add onto Franklin Elementary School instead. You can answer the survey anonymously. You'll have until May 21st to respond.