

Winona State University gets a new president from within Minnesota...

Mankato State vice-president Scott Olson was appointed today as the next president for W-S-U...succeeding Judith Ramaley, who has taken a new job in Portland, Oregon. Connie Gores is being promoted to interim president at Winona State, to serve until Olson is able to start in July. Olson also has worked in administrative posts at universities in Connecticut and Indiana.