

If you expected an absentee ballott this week and never got it.....don't worry...it's not lost in the mail.

And now you won't get one until next week. La Crosse County Clerk, Ginny Denkmeyer, says normally, there's a month and a half between the primaries and a general election. But for recall elections, the state Constitution calls for a gap of four weeks. And Government Accountability Board Director, Kevin Kennedy, says local clerks must do some maneuvering with the shorter time frame.
