

Driver Following Cop Too Close Gets 4th OWI

Monday, 04 June 2012 10:09

A La Crosse guy might have avoided his fourth drunk driving charge this week-end. But tailgating a squad car on fourth street probably didn't help him. Cops say 48 year-old Kenneth Pederson not only tailgated the cop on Sunday afternoon but then sped up to pass around the squad. Pederson, who blew a .18, says he was just in a hurry to get groceries and go home.