

So what about the senate recall elections tomorrow. They seem to be buried behind the Governor's recall election. UW-L Political Scientist, Joe Heim, says don't expect any democratic shockers to take place as the republicans all seem to be favored tomorrow.

New polls last week showed Republicans with healthy leads in three of the four state Senate recall fights.