

The UW Board of Regents acted yesterday on a proposed 5.5-percent tuition increase for this fall. The result? It passed by a 17-1 vote. So what does that mean for students attending UW-La Crosse?

UW-L Chancellor, Joe Gow. The 5.5 percent tuition increase last year and this year will result in a total of $110 million in new tuition revenue of the two year period.