

La Crosse's garbage hauler says he's okay with the city's new trash rules. Gary Harter owns Harter's Quick Clean Up. He thinks the newly adopted regulations will keep the city cleaner and he doesn't even mind the new mandate for all garbage to be in containers

Besides the new container-only rule, the city also has new restrictions on how many large items can get tossed out at once and prohibits scavenging without permission.