

Hit-And-Run Suspect in Vernon Co Crash Caught In Minnesota

Tuesday, 31 July 2012 10:39

A driver accused of causing a two-car weekend crash in Vernon County is being held in Minnesota.

Mark Nordrum was arrested in Houston County yesterday. Investigators say Nordrum crashed head-on into another car on Highway 56 near Viroqua, and then ran from the accident scene. Two people in the other car were injured, along with a passenger in Nordrum's car. No word yet on when Nordrum could be brought back to Wisconsin to face charges.
