

Several big construction projects await students on the campus of Viterbo this fall. The latest, the Clare Apartments. The student residence hall is apartment style according to Gene Mculty....118 beds.....parking....and other amenities. The price tag?

The school of nursing building has also been completed as is it's former residence.....the Brophy Center.