

As politicians make their way through Labor Day parades today, their political parties are gearing up to watch polls in a few months. Nothing new to La Crosse County Clerk, Ginny Denkmeyer.

She says laws protect the polls...voters and poll workers and if something goes wrong with a huge election coming, she says everyone knows their position and what to do....just in case.