

Missing Man Search Continues

Monday, 01 October 2012 10:34

The search for a missing Brice Prairie man has been re-organized and efforts to find David Schroeder will continue this week. The focus now will center on a large corn field north of Oak Grove. Shroeder has been missing since September 22nd.

Kristie Tweed of Journey Lutheran Church, in conjunction with local police, says the search was temporarily called off Sunday as orgnaizers re-grouped and some that were searching the Brice Prarie area rested up.

Journey Lutheran Church has set up and is managing an emergency fund at Park bank in Holmen for the family. If you'd like to make a donation, you can stop by Park Bank during normal business hours.
