

Gang of Teens Busted at Football Game

Tuesday, 09 October 2012 06:08

A gang disrupted by La Crosse police has very clear intentions. Cops say they arrested three teens at the Logan-Central football game on Friday. 19 year-old Juan Winslow, 17 year-old DeAaron Appleton and a 16 year-old are part of the gang they call the Get Money Boys. And that's what they've been doing. Getting money. At gunpoint. Cops say the gang of five have been breaking into homes dressed in black and wearing masks, demanding money, electronics and drugs. At one house they stole a guy's guns. One of the guys arrested Friday told cops their goal was to 'run' the city of La Crosse. Police say the gang has been targeting drug dealers in their armed home invasions.