

Schroeder Still Missing

Wednesday, 10 October 2012 13:09

The family of David Schroeder, missing now for 3 weeks, is pleading with the public to help bring her husband and father back home. The man from Brice Prairie, left his house Saturday, September 22nd and has not been heard from since. La Crosse County Sheriff's Sgt, Mark Yehle, says Schroeder has some characteristics that are not hard to see.

\(Click for Audio\)

He says cadaver dog teams found nothing after a search of some swamps around Brice Prairie over the weekend. He says if you have seen Schroeder, to contact the sheriff's department.