

A total of over 65 thousand personnel conducted extended combat training at the installation for two or more weeks, while a total of close to 57 thousand personnel conducted battle-drill training for a training total of 122,171 personnel.

Fiscal year 2013 projections look promising, as most of the units and exercises that occurred at Fort McCoy in FY 2012 are scheduled to return to McCoy for training.