

The Board of Education for the School District of La Crosse honored Festival Foods and owners Dave and Barb Skogen at their meeting Monday night. Board member, Dave Rudolph, talked about one of the big ways Festival has worked with the district.

\(Click for Audio\)

In addition, the Skogens generously provide donations including raffle prizes for booster club and other school sponsored events that raise funds for various programs and departments in the School District of La Crosse. They were also primary donors to the recent Central High School commons renovations project.