

La Crosse Man Critical Following Crash

Monday, 29 October 2012 09:27

24 year old Jonathan Kramer was traveling north on State Highway 35 near the Genoa Fish Hatchery when his car lost control, went off the road on the right shoulder and rolled several times. Kramer was ejected from the vehicle and transported to Gundersen Lutheran Hospital where he remains in critical condition.

A passenger, 24 year old Dustin Drath of LaCrosse, was transported to Gundersen Lutheran by Tri-State Ambulance was treated for non-life threatening injuries and later released.