

Apparent Robber Nabbed by La Crosse Police

Wednesday, 31 October 2012 12:54

A robbery in La Crosse quickly solved today. Police say they've arrested 26 year-old Nicole De Clute. They say DeClute brandished a gun and demanded money from a clerk at Hangers to Hems on Jackson street late this morning. She got some cash and took off. Police located her later walking on 10th and Ferry. They arrested her and recovered all the money stolen and the gun used in the robbery. DeClute faces a number of charges
