

According to the National Association for Home Care & Hospice, the amount of US Home Health Agencies has grown immensely from about 3 thousand in 1982, to over 33 thousand existing today. Mayo System Health Care in La Crosse has also seen that rise.

\(Click for Audio\)

Jennifer Meyers, Homecare/Hospice Supervisor, says finances play a huge role in someone choosing home health over a nursing type facility.