

Walker on Monday said he has ``haven't even talked about" whether he would endorse Evers for a second four-year term. He says that may be something that's discussed in the future. Walker says he and Evers have a good working relationship.

They have worked on a number of issues, although Evers opposed Walker's proposal taking away teachers' collective bargaining rights.