A Minnesota man killed in a car truck crash in far western Wisconsin has been identified as 22 year old Matthew Amos of the Twin Cities' suburb of Cottage Grove. Highway 10 near Prescott was closed for six hours after the Saturday night mishap.

Pierce County sheriff's deputies said Amos failed to stop at a stop sign on County Trunk E. And his car got stuck under a semi truck heading east on Highway 10.

A passenger in the car, a 22 year old Saint Paul woman, was hospitalized with undisclosed injuries. The truck driver, who was from Tomah, escaped injury.
