

More Charges For Jail Inmates

Tuesday, 04 December 2012 09:50

16 pills were found in the cell of 24 year old Mason Sizemore. Several others were found in the cell of 26 year old Branden McGinnis. Sizemore was accused of smuggling the prescription drug clonazepam into the jail and handing them out to other inmates. The next day, jail staff received another anonymous tip that there were more of the prescription drugs in the cell. They conducted a second search and found several more pills.

McGinnis is facing 3 new charges while Sizemore is facing 5 new counts. Sizemore is doing time for heroin charges while McGinnis is being held on 16 counts of bailjumping and criminal damage to property.
