

2 Questions Loom For The Hungry

Tuesday, 04 December 2012 09:50

The Wafer Food Pantry in La Crosse picked up about four thousand pounds last Friday from the Rotary Lights in Riverside Park. And even though that sounds like a lot of food, Executive Director, Erin Waldhart, says it will be gone in about 4 days. This time of year, she says, people are faced with two big questions.

\(Click for Audio\)

Wafer serves over 1700 households and five thousand people a month. She says they will collect food 8 more times before Rotary Lights comes to an end.