

A shooting victim has been brought to a La Crosse hospital after an incident last night in Jackson County...

The shooting in the village of Taylor was reported around 7:30 Wednesday night. A man who had been shot a number of times was driven to the Whitehall hospital, before being airlifted to Gundersen Lutheran. The Jackson County Sheriff's Office says the shooting may have resulted from a domestic dispute.