

Wisconsin Athletic Director Barry Alvarez will coach the Badgers in the Rose Bowl. Team captains reached out to Alvarez and asked him to coach the team. Alvarez said he would be "honored" to do so. Alvarez, who retired from coaching following the 2005 season, has a 3-0 record in the Rose Bowl, with the wins coming in 1994, 1999 and 2000. Another person close to the Wisconsin athletic department said Alvarez has been in contact with Boise State Coach Chris Petersen and an interview could happen as early as Monday.
