

Last week, UW System Regents approved increasing the out of state enrollment cap of incoming freshman from 25 percent to 27.5 percent, although one of the main purposes of the increase is to allow more in state residents to attend UW as well. Regent Brent Smith tells us that it was one of two proposals looked at.

\(Click for Audio\)

UW surpassed the 25 percent number this year by .8 percent.