

Holster Stolen From Deputy's Home Is Found...Guns Still Missing

Friday, 14 December 2012 12:02

At least one item stolen from the home of a sheriff's deputy has been found on French Island.

La Crosse County Chief Deputy Jeff Wolf says a tip led to the recovery of a holster taken in the burglary more than a week ago. Wolf says there's no evidence of other similar burglaries in the area. Still missing...two pistols with ammunition, and a yellow Taser.
