

The La Crosse School District is not taking the school shooting's out east lightly. Regina Siegel, Director of Pupil Services, says meetings were already held this morning related to the devastation that occurred Friday in Newtown, Connecticut.

\(Click for Audio\)

She said meetings dealing with not only safety but counseling and other aspects of students safety and their well being will be held this week.