

Mauston Declares Snow Emergency

Wednesday, 19 December 2012 13:58

Due to the pending blizzard for our area The City of Mauston's Mayor has officially declared a snow emergency for all City Streets. The snow emergency will go into effect at 6 am Thursday and last until noon Saturday.

The emergency means there will be no parking on any City Streets, during this time, so crews can clear the streets. Violators are subject to a ticket and or towing of their vehicle.

Public parking lots and downtown areas will be opened without restriction on their normal parking times which is 6:00am to 2:00 am daily.
