

Construction is underway on a project to build a new Interstate 90 crossing over the Mississippi River. Kristine Hernandez with MNDOT says Minnesota will not be stuck with the entire tab.

\(Click for Audio\)

The new bridge will be equipped with structures to support a bike and pedestrian path, though there is funding to build the walkway yet. The new bridge will also improve traffic safety, capacity and access on and between Highway 61 and I-90.