

Two Dozen Cars Towed During First La Crosse Snow Emergency

Monday, 04 February 2013 13:02

---

A total of a couple dozen cars got hooked for La Crosse's first snow disposal emergency. City public works director Dale Hexom declared the snow emergency for the early morning hours of Friday and Saturday. Friday morning, just two cars got towed under new rules that allow not only towing but triple fines as well. But Saturday morning, 22 cars got hauled away. With fines and fees, each tow will cost drivers up to two hundred dollars.